

HOW DO YOU LEARN BEST?

All students have different learning styles, and heavy equipment operators are no different. Operators who train on simulators can process and retain information in their best learning style while staying safe, protecting job site personnel, saving equipment fuel and maintenance costs.

Auditory

Learn by hearing, class interaction and discussion.

Kinesthetic

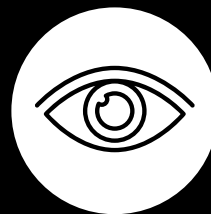

Learn by hands-on practice in fieldwork settings.

4 Learning Styles

Learn facts to solve real-world problems in classes.
